

The Daily Courant.

Monday, December 21. 1702.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 16.

Rome, Nov. 25.
ON Sunday, being the Festival of St. Elizabeth Queen of Hungary, the Pope said Mass; and Wednesday, being St. Cecilia's Day, His Holiness went with a great Retinue to the Church of the Nuns of this City, who are under the Patronage of that Saint; and afterwards visited their Cloyster, where, in the Presence of 15 Cardinals, and of the Queen Dowager of Poland, the Nuns were permitted to Kiss his Foot. On Thursday he entred into the 3d Year of his Pontificate, upon which a Chappel was held in the Quirinal, and the Vice-Dean Cardinal Acciajoli complimented His Holiness in the Name of the Sacred College; after which the Pope went to the Church of St. Theodore, where he was shewn the 60 Turkish Slaves that were lately taken in a Felucca on the Coast of Nettuno; and who are now kept in the Castle of St. Angelo. They write from Civita Vecchia that Fresh Water is at length brought from the Hill of Tolfa to that City in an Aqueduct of 22 Miles long; this Work was carried on at the charge of the Apostolical Chamber, Cardinal Pamphilio being Supervisor of the Work. His Holiness is still resolv'd to go a Pilgrimage to the Chappel of Loretto the first Sunday after Easter; and 'tis whisper'd about that he will afterwards take a Journey to the Frontiers of Piedmont, and that the King of France will meet him there, to confer of Expedients for restoring the Peace of Christendom.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 16.

Hamburg, Nov. 31. The Magnificent Preparations for the Funeral of the Duke of Holstein Gottorp will be ready on the 15th of December, and the Corps will be enterr'd on the 19th. General Bannier and the Baron de Gortz Councillor of State to the Young Duke arriv'd at Sleswick on the 24th from Stockholm, having been at Copenhagen in their way. Prince Christian Augustus, Administrator, is also arriv'd at Sleswick. All is quiet in that Country through the good Government of the Dutchess Dowager and of Prince Christian Augustus, to the Satisfaction of all Persons in General, and particularly of the King of Denmark, Joint-Sovereign of the Dutchies of Holstein and Sleswick. Letters from Sweden say, that they are fitting out Ships at Carelsroon to transport 4000 Swedes into Livonia.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 16.

Paris, Dec. 15. We have Advice that the King of Spain, left Antibes on the 20th Ult. arriv'd at Toulon on the 23d, and on the 24th took a view of the Fortifications of that City and Harbour; on the 27th he came to Marfeilles, where he was lodg'd in the House of Count Grignan, Lieutenant-General of Provence; He took a view of that Port, the Arsenal for the Gallies, the Batteries that defend the Bay, the Cittadels and the Abbey of St. Victor. On the 1st instant, His Majesty went to Aix, the 2d to Salon, and on the 3d arriv'd at Arles.

The King has made a Promotion of Sea-Officers: The Duke of Albemarle (the Duke of Berwick's Brother) is made a Lieutenant-General of the Marines; the Sieur de Bellisle-Erard, the Commander of Bellefontaine, the Count de Seville, the Marquess de Galliffoniere, and the Bailly of Lorraine, are made Flag-Officers.

From the Paris Gaz. a la main, dated Dec. 15.

Before the Promotion of General Officers was declar'd, the Count de Pontchartrain sent for the Officers and told them, that it being come to the King's ear, that some of them sought to raise themselves by Presents or by making Friends at Court, His Majesty had order'd him to acquaint them, that if such Practices should be found out, those Persons that had made use of them should be turn'd out of their Employments, the King's intent being to prefer only Men of Merit and Capacity.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 14.

Mons, Dec. 8. They write from Charleroy, that the Dutch have Plunder'd 5 or 6 Farm-houses about Genap, and carried away all the Horses they found. Berwixt Tournay and this City a great Number of Recruits are quarter'd, being all lusty well-made Fellows, but very ill clad. Yesterday the Estates of Hainault met to consult of settling the Contributions which this Country is to furnish.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 12.

Amsterdam, Dec. 11. Our Fleet of Merchant Ships from Muscovy, with the Convoys, are arriv'd in the Texel, at different times; except one Ship call'd the Dadelboom, which was lost in the Voyage.

London, Dec. 20. On Friday Night last came a Letter to the Commissioners of the Customs from the Commissioners of Prizes, advising them that 2 Men of War from Vigo were coming into the River very richly Laden Laden with Plate and other Effects; upon which some of the Custom-house Officers were order'd to go down yesterday, and take charge of them.

Yesterday there was sent to the Custom-House out of the Galleon lying at Woolwich, and afterwards carry'd to Her Majesty's Mint in the Tower, a very large Chest seal'd up, weighing several Hundred weight; a Sample of the Contents taken out of the Chest at the Top, was at the same time deliver'd to the Essay Master, and is presum'd to be Gold Oar. When this Chest was sent from Woolwich, there were more Chests discover'd; but how many, or what was in them, we are not yet inform'd.

Sir Willoughby Aston is dead.
